

B

BORN THIS WAY:¹ LESBIAN STYLE SINCE THE EIGHTIES

YOU CAN ANALYSE ME TO DEATH, BUT IT IS JUST THAT I GREW UP AS A TOMBOY AND I PREFER MY HAIR SHORT AND I LOVE NUDIE SUITS. YEAH SURE, THE BOYS CAN BE ATTRACTED TO ME, THE GIRLS CAN BE ATTRACTED TO ME, YOUR MOTHER . . . YOUR UNCLE, SURE. IT DOESN'T REALLY MATTER TO ME.

Country-western singer k.d. lang²

Look from Justine Taylor's Opus 9 Collection: 'tween season deconstructed wool suit with jersey limbs, military detail pant, urban tribal jacket hem, and futuristic ankle boot. Photographer: Michele Aboud. Stylist: Bex Sheers. Make up: Justine Purdue. Hair Stylist: Diane Dusting. Model: Ismini Papavasopoulou.

In September 2011, Lady Gaga appeared at the 28th Annual MTV Music Video Awards dressed in drag as the cursing, chain-smoking, and lovesick Jo Calderone. Wearing black Brook Brother's pants, white tee-shirt and hair styled in a slicked-back "duck's arse." Jo Calderone embodied a look that was popular amongst working-class white American lesbian butches in the 1950s. Modeled on the actors James Dean and Marlon Brando as well as musicians of the emerging rock and roll scene, such as Elvis Presley and Buddy Holly,